~~(c)~~ 3. Issue a nondisciplinary order requiring the licensee to complete a prescribed number of hours of continuing education in an area or areas prescribed by the board to provide the licensee with the necessary understanding of current developments, skills, procedures or treatment.

E. A complaint dismissed by the BOARD ~~credentialing committee~~ pursuant to subsection D, paragraph 1 of this section is not a complaint of unprofessional conduct and shall not be disclosed by the board as a complaint on the licensee's complaint history.

F. If after completing its investigation the BOARD ~~credentialing committee~~ believes that the information is or may be true, the BOARD ~~credentialing committee~~ may recommend ~~that the board enter~~ING into a consent agreement with the licensee to limit or restrict the licensee's practice or to rehabilitate the licensee, protect the public and ensure the licensee's ability to safely engage in the practice of behavioral health. A consent agreement may also require the licensee to successfully complete a board approved rehabilitative, retraining or assessment program.

G. ~~If on receipt of a credentialing committee's recommendation the board finds that the information provided pursuant to subsection A of this section is not of sufficient~~

~~seriousness to merit direct action against the licensee, the board may take any of the following actions:~~

~~1. Dismiss if, in the opinion of the board, the complaint is without merit.
2. File a letter of concern and dismiss the complaint. The licensee may file a written response with the board within thirty days after the licensee receives the letter of concern.~~

~~3. Issue a nondisciplinary order requiring the licensee to complete a prescribed number of hours of continuing education in an area or areas prescribed by the board to provide the licensee with the necessary understanding of current developments, skills, procedures or treatment.~~

~~H. If on receipt of a credentialing committee's recommendation the board finds that the information provided pursuant to subsection A of this section is or may be true, the board may enter into an agreement with the licensee to limit or restrict the licensee's practice or to rehabilitate the licensee, protect the public and ensure the licensee's ability to safely engage in the practice of behavioral health. The board may also require the licensee to successfully complete a board approved rehabilitative, retraining or assessment program.~~

~~I G. If on receipt of a credentialing committee's recommendation the board finds that the information provided pursuant to subsection A of this section is or may be true, the board may request a formal interview with the licensee. If the licensee refuses the invitation for a formal interview or accepts and the results indicate that grounds may exist for revocation or suspension of the licensee's license for more than twelve months, the board shall issue a formal complaint and order that a hearing be held pursuant to title 41, chapter 6, article 10. If after completing a formal interview the board finds that the protection of the public requires emergency action, the board may order a summary suspension of the licensee's license pending formal revocation proceedings or other action authorized by this section.~~

~~J H. If after completing the formal interview the board finds the information provided is not of sufficient seriousness to merit suspension for more than twelve months or revocation of the license, the board may take the following actions:~~

~~1. Dismiss if, in the opinion of the board, the information is without merit.
2. File a letter of concern and dismiss the complaint. The licensee may file a written response with the board within thirty days after the licensee receives the letter of concern.~~

~~3. Issue a decree of censure. A decree of censure is an official action against the licensee's license and may include a requirement for restitution of fees to a client resulting from violations of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.~~

~~4. Fix a period and terms of probation best adapted to protect the public health and safety and rehabilitate or educate the licensee concerned. Probation may include temporary suspension not to exceed twelve months, restriction of the licensee's license to practice behavioral health, a requirement for restitution of fees to a client or education or rehabilitation at the licensee's own expense. If a licensee fails to comply with the terms of probation, the board shall serve the licensee with a written notice that states that the licensee is subject to a formal hearing based on the information considered by the board at the formal interview and any other acts or conduct alleged to be in violation of this chapter or rules adopted by the board~~ pursuant to this chapter, including noncompliance with the terms of probation or a consent agreement.

5. Issue a nondisciplinary order requiring the licensee to complete a prescribed number of hours of continuing education in an area or areas prescribed by the board to provide the licensee with the necessary understanding of current developments, skills, procedures or treatment.

¶ I. If the board finds that the information provided in subsection A or I of this section warrants suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter, the board shall initiate formal proceedings pursuant to title 41, chapter 6, article 10.

¶ J. In a formal interview pursuant to subsection I of this section or in a hearing pursuant to subsection K of this section, the board in addition to any other action may impose a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation of this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter.

¶ K. A letter of concern is a public document.

¶ L. A licensee who after a formal hearing is found by the board to be guilty of unprofessional conduct, to be mentally or physically unable to safely engage in the practice of behavioral health or to be professionally incompetent is subject to censure, probation as provided in this section, suspension of license or revocation of license or any combination of these, including a stay of action, and for a period of time or permanently and under conditions as the board deems appropriate for the protection of the public health and safety and just in the circumstance. The board may charge all costs incurred in the course of the investigation and formal hearing to the licensee it finds is in violation of this chapter. The board shall deposit, pursuant to sections 35-146 and 35-147, monies collected pursuant to this subsection in the board of behavioral health examiners fund established by section 32-3254.

¶ M. If the board during the course of any investigation determines that a criminal violation may have occurred involving the delivery of behavioral health services, the board shall make the evidence of violations available to the appropriate criminal justice agency for its consideration.

¶ N. The board shall deposit, pursuant to sections 35-146 and 35-147, all monies collected from civil penalties paid pursuant to this chapter in the state general fund.

¶ O. Notice of a complaint and hearing is effective by a true copy of the notice being sent by certified mail to the licensee's last known address of record in the board's files. Notice of the complaint and hearing is complete on the date of its deposit in the mail.

¶ P. In determining the appropriate disciplinary action under this section, the board shall consider all previous nondisciplinary and disciplinary actions against a licensee.

¶ Q. The board may defer action with regard to an impaired licensee who voluntarily signs an agreement, in a form satisfactory to the board, agreeing to practice restrictions and treatment and monitoring programs deemed necessary by the board to protect the public health and safety. A licensee who is impaired and who does not agree to enter into an agreement with the board is subject to other action as provided pursuant to this chapter.

FR. Subject to an order duly entered by the board, a person whose license to practice behavioral health has been suspended or restricted pursuant to this chapter, whether voluntarily or by action of the board, may at reasonable intervals apply to the board for reinstatement of the license. The person shall submit the application in writing and in the form prescribed by the board. After conducting an investigation and hearing, the board may grant or deny the application or modify the original finding to reflect any circumstances that have changed sufficiently to warrant modification. The board may require the applicant to pass an examination or complete board imposed continuing education requirements or may impose any other sanctions the board deems appropriate for reentry into the practice of behavioral health.

US. A person whose license is revoked, suspended or not renewed must return the license to the offices of the board within ten days after notice of that action.

VT. The board may enforce a civil penalty imposed pursuant to this section in the superior court in Maricopa county.

WV. For complaints being brought before a credentialing committee or the full board, the information released to the public regarding an ongoing investigation must clearly indicate that the investigation is a pending complaint and must include the following statement:

Pending complaints represent unproven allegations. On investigation, many complaints are found to be without merit or not of sufficient seriousness to merit disciplinary action against the licensee and are dismissed.

32-3281.01 Complaints, requirements, exception

A. THE BOARD SHALL NOT ACT ON ANY COMPLAINT IN WHICH AN ALLEGATION OF UNPROFESSIONAL CONDUCT OR ANY OTHER VIOLATION OF THIS CHAPTER OCCURRED MORE THAN SEVEN YEARS BEFORE THE COMPLAINT IS RECEIVED BY THE BOARD.

B. THE BOARD SHALL NOT OPEN AN INVESTIGATION IF IDENTIFYING INFORMATION REGARDING THE COMPLAINANT IS NOT PROVIDED.

32-3281.02 Burden of proof

THE BOARD HAS THE BURDEN OF PROOF BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE FOR DISCIPLINARY MATTERS BROUGHT PURSUANT TO THIS CHAPTER.

32-3282. Right to examine and copy evidence; summoning witnesses and documents; taking testimony; right to counsel

A. In connection with information received pursuant to section 32-3281, subsection A, the board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ or the board's ~~or committee's~~ authorized agents or employees at all reasonable times have access to, for the purpose of examination, and the right to copy any psychotherapy notes, documents, reports, records or other physical evidence of any person being investigated, or the reports, records and any other documents maintained by and in possession of any hospital, clinic, physician's office, laboratory, pharmacy or health care institution as defined in section 36-401 or any other public or private agency, if the psychotherapy notes, documents, reports, records or evidence relate to the specific complaint.

B. For the purpose of all investigations and proceedings conducted by a credentialing committee:

1. The board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ on its own initiative may issue subpoenas compelling the attendance and testimony of witnesses or demanding the production for examination or copying of documents or any other physical evidence if the evidence relates to the unauthorized practice of behavioral health or to the competence, unprofessional conduct or mental or physical ability of a licensee to safely practice. Within five days after the service of a subpoena on any person requiring the production of any evidence in that person's possession or under that person's control, the person may petition the board ~~or the credentialing committee~~ to revoke, limit or modify the subpoena. The board ~~or the credentialing committee~~ shall revoke, limit or modify a subpoena if in its opinion the evidence required does not relate to unlawful practices covered by this chapter or is not relevant to the charge that is the subject matter of the hearing or investigation or the subpoena does not describe with sufficient particularity the physical evidence required to be produced. Any member of the board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ and any agent designated by the board may administer oaths, examine witnesses and receive evidence.

2. Any person appearing before the board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ may be represented by counsel.

3. THE BOARD SHALL MAKE AVAILABLE THE INVESTIGATIVE FILE WITH CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION REDACTED TO THE LICENSEE WHO IS THE SUBJECT OF THE INVESTIGATION AT LEAST FIVE BUSINESS DAYS PRIOR TO THE BOARD MEETING AT WHICH ANY CONSIDERATION OF THE CASE WILL BE GIVEN.

3. The superior court, on application by the board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ or by the person subpoenaed, has jurisdiction to issue an order either:

(a) Requiring the person to appear before the board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ or the authorized agent to produce evidence relating to the matter under investigation.

(b) Revoking, limiting or modifying the subpoena if in the court's opinion the evidence demanded does not relate to unlawful practices covered by this chapter or is not relevant to grounds for disciplinary action that are the subject matter of the hearing or investigation or the subpoena does not describe with sufficient particularity the physical evidence required to be produced. Any failure to obey an order of the court may be punished by the court as contempt.

C. Records, including clinical records, reports, files or other reports or oral statements relating to examinations, findings or treatments of clients, any information from which a client or the client's family might be identified or information received and records kept by the board ~~or a credentialing committee~~ as a result of the investigation procedure prescribed by this chapter are not available to the public.

D. This section and any other law that makes communications between a licensee and the licensee's client a privileged communication do not apply to investigations or proceedings conducted pursuant to this chapter. The board ~~and a credentialing committee~~ and the board's ~~and committee's~~ employees, agents and representatives shall keep in confidence the names of any clients whose records are reviewed during the course of investigations and proceedings pursuant to this chapter.
